THE 2006 YORK RITE CHRISTMAS TOAST IS A BIG SUCCESS IN ANCHORAGE

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR AND GUESTS MOVE THROUGH THE BUFFET LINE DURING THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS OBSERVANCE BREAKFAST HELD DECEMBER 17, 2006 IN ANCHORAGE AT THE SOURDOUGH MINING COMPANY.

Anchorage Commandery #2 held its annual "Christmas Toast" on December 17th and kindly asked Wasilla-Palmer Commandery #4 to join with them in the observance. A toast from Sir Knight Robert Cave, P.G.C., Grand

FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to encourage all Sir Knights to submit articles, letters, pictures, or comments for inclusion in this supplement. Articles need to be submitted to me by the 1st of the month for the next issue (February 1st for March issue).

Prelate of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America and the Committee on Religious Activities to the Most Eminent Grand Master, Sir Knight Richard Burditt Baldwin was read, followed by the Grand Master's response. The next toast from the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Alaska and the Committee on Religious Activities: Right Eminent David A. Hunt to our Right Eminent Grand Commander, Sir Knight Fred V. Angleton was read, followed by his response. The final toast from Anchorage Commandery #2 & Wasilla-Palmer Commandery #4 by Sir Knight Stanley R. Foulke, Grand Prelate to the Eminent Commanders, Sir Knights, their families and friends was read, followed by response from ESK Robert Fulton, Commander of Anchorage Commandery #2 and ESK Richard Olsen, Commander of Wasilla-Palmer Commandery #4.

All present raised their glasses signifying approval of the toasts and drank heartily in affirmation. The toasts preceded a fine buffet breakfast enjoyed by everyone with good fellowship and Yuletide Blessings exchanged among all present.

The Grand York Rite Masons of Alaska will hold its 2007 Sessions at the Sheraton Hotel in Anchorage, March 1st, 2nd, & 3rd. Registration forms may be found on the internet at:
