ALASKA'S NEW GRAND COMMANDER

Right Eminent Sir Knight Don G. Chaffin II is the new Grand Commander of Alaska for 2007. In 2000 he served as Grand Master of Masons in Alaska.

Sir Knight Don believes it is important to be an active member of all the appendent bodies to which you belong and sets as his goal for this year to promote this ethic to members of the Grand Commandery of Alaska. The Blue Lodge is our lifeline and source of new Sir Knights.

To assist Constituent Commanderies, he plans an active schedule of visitations and encourages regular communication between all Commanderies and Grand Commandery Officers. You may contact him by e-mail at: don@chaffin.com

ALASKA GRAND YORK RITE 2007 SESSIONS

The members of Alaska's Grand York Rite Masons met at the Sheraton Hotel in Anchorage, March 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. The Grand Commandery held its part on Saturday. As in the past, the greatest treasure of the event was meeting and spending time with our own Sir Knights and those who come to visit each year from outside our beautiful state. We enjoyed the good fellowship and cordial communication from our new Northwest Department Commander, James C. Herndon, who hails from Idaho.

FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to encourage all Sir Knights to submit articles, letters, pictures, or comments for inclusion in this supplement. Articles need to be submitted to me by the 1st of the month for the next issue (May 1st for June issue).

NEW GRAND COMMANDERY OFFICERS

Several Sir Knights were recognized for their service to Templary at the banquet Saturday evening. Sir Knights Dale Cain, Monte Ervin, and Lee Seagondollar were presented with the Knight Commander of the Temple award from the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar by Sir Knight James C Herndon, Right Eminent Northwest Department Commander. All Sir Knights and their ladies enjoyed the evening dinner and conclusion of the Grand Sessions.
