ALASKA'S NEW GRAND COMMANDER

Right Eminent Sir Knight Leonard C. Bibler is the new Grand Commander of Alaska for 2008. In 2006 he served as Most Excellent Grand Grand High Priest in Alaska.

Sir Knight Leonard believes it is important to be an active member of all the appendent bodies to which you belong and sets as one of his goals for this year to promote this ethic to members of the Grand Commandery of Alaska. The Blue Lodge is our lifeline and source of new Sir Knights.

To assist Constituent Commanderies, he plans an active schedule of visitations and encourages regular communication between all Commanderies and Grand Commandery Officers. You may contact him by e-mail at: lbibler@clearwire.net

ALASKA GRAND YORK RITE 2008 SESSIONS

The members of Alaska's Grand York Rite Masons met at the Regency Fairbanks Hotel in Fairbanks, March 6th, 7th, and 8th. The Grand Commandery held its 5th Annual Conclave on Saturday. As in the past, the greatest treasure of the event was meeting and spending time with our own as well as visiting dignitaries from other states.

FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to encourage all Sir Knights to submit articles, letters, pictures, or comments for inclusion in this supplement. Articles need to be submitted to me by the 1st of the month for the next issue (April 1st for the May issue).

Sir Knight David D. Goodwin, Right Eminent Deputy Grand Master of the U.S.A. attends Grand Conclave

Those attending the 2008 Grand Sessions had the pleasure of hearing the message presented by Sir Knight David D. Goodwin, REDGM. It was very encouraging to receive his comments and information from the Grand Encampment. Sir Knight Goodwin was accompanied by his cousin Sir Knight William J. Goodwin, Jr. who is a member of Mat-Su Valley Commandery #4 and Anchorage Commandery #2. All Sir Knights and their ladies enjoyed the evening dinner and conclusion of the Grand Sessions.
