ALASKA'S NEW GRAND COMMANDER

It is my extreme honor to serve as Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Alaska for 2008-2009. The Grand Officers and I will do our best to make you proud of our performance during the year. Thank you to all the members who did such fine work at the Grand Sessions at Fairbanks in March of this year. You are what makes Templary great!

Here is the schedule of my official visitations in Alaska: Fairbanks Commandery #1 will be in the fall; Anchorage Commandery #2, May 16th; Mat-Su Valley Commandery #4, June 11th.

I look forward to representing our Grand Commandery in Wenatchee, Washington at the Grand Sessions on May 17-21, 2008; The Imperial Red Cross of Constantine, San Diego, California, June 5-8, 2008; The York Rite Sovereign College of North America in Reston, Virginia, July 30– August 3, 2008; The 73rd Annual Conclave Convent General KYCH in Alexandria, Virginia, September 10-13, 2008; and The Northwestern Regional Dept. Conference in Boise, Idaho, October 16-18, 2008.

Serving you is a great honor and I thank you with my hand on my heart.

Shown above are left, Sir Knight David D. Goodwin, Right Eminent Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America and right, Sir Knight William J. Goodwin, Jr., Mat-Su Valley Commandery #4, Palmer, Alaska. They are cousins, who, as boys, both lived on the same street of a small town in New York State. The Alaska Grand Conclave at Fairbanks gave them a fine opportunity for a long overdue visit.

The Grand Encampment has a new web site located at www.knightstemplar.org The next time you are online, check out the site and let us know you have visited us by signing our guest book.
