WELCOME OUR TWO NEWEST SIR KNIGHTS

Jeff McKechnie & Kelvin Bailey

2013 YORK RITE FESTIVAL

This years fall York Rite Festival brought us two new Companions and Sir Knights. Jeff McKechnie, and Kelvin Bailey, both from Anchorage Lodge No. 17, are now the newest members of Anchorage Commandery No. 2.

This was a great year for the conferral of the degrees! It started on November 15th with the Chapter degrees, at 6pm, and continued until 10pm that evening. On the following day, November 16th, the Council degrees started at 8am and continued until 11am. We took a short break, and started with the Commandery degrees at 11:30am, and that continued until 3pm.

These two candidates are eager to walk the pilgrims path, and gain wisdom to aid them on their journey. Welcome Companions and Sir Knights.

FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to encourage all Sir Knights to submit articles, letters, pictures, or comments for inclusion in this supplement. Articles need to be submitted to me by the 1st of the month for the next issue. (January 25th for the February issue.)

SPECIAL THANKS

Mat-Su Valley and Anchorage York Rite Masons would like to thank Companion and Sir Knight L. Alvin Hill for coming from Tennessee to Alaska, making his official visitation as Grand Illustrious Master to Fairbanks, Anchorage, and Mat-Su Valley.

His delivery of the final message of the degrees of the Commandery are nothing less than incredible. He places his heart and his mind in delivering the lessons, and makes it always an experience to remember.
